It was a sparkling October day on Saturday as the auction for the benefit of the Restoration Fund of the Mattapoisett Congregational Church got underway. A large crowd was on hand to take part in the bidding and the fun of the pursuit of treasure. The highly successful event brought in $2152.95 toward the work which is now proceeding on the handsome colonial structure.

STUDDS-MACKAY DEBATE OCT. 13th

What do you think Congress should do about the high cost of fuel? the unemployment situation? the current monetary crisis? Or do you feel these matters are best left in the realm of private enterprise and individual initiative?

Come to the debate between Gerry Studds and J. Allen MacKay on Sunday afternoon at 3 P.M. October 13th at the Old Rochester Regional Junior High School Cafetorium, Mattapoisett, to hear these opposing candidates for the office of the United States Representative from the 12th Congressional District express their views on the many important issues on which a Congressman must vote and on the role of Congress in these times.

Representative Gerry E. Studds, a Democrat, is presently serving his first term in the United States Congress. He currently serves on the Public Works Committee and is a member of several sub committees of that Committee. He is also a member of the Merchant Marine & Fisheries Committee and on several of its sub committees. Prior to his election he had substantial political, governmental and teaching experience.

J. Alan MacKay, the Republican candidate, is a lawyer and is presently employed by the Cabot Corporation. He has had extensive business, political and community service experience.

Both Studds and MacKay are outstanding public speakers and the League of Women Voters of the Marion Area urges everyone to take advantage of this opportunity to hear the issues and to meet them in person. The

Did you know that Mattapoisett will be heavily fined daily if we don't comply to the 1976 Federal Law for all coastal towns to get rid of raw sewage? We need help in this Study Group! AND if we bring out a booklet on KNOW YOUR TOWN and enlarge our group to 25 members, the State League will recognize us as the Mattapoisett League. CIVIL DEFENSE TEST FOR HURRICANE READINESS

On October 15 at 7:30 a mock hurricane emergency conducted by the Massachusetts Civil Defense Agency will test the readiness of the Board of Selectmen, Civil Defense Director, Police Chief, Fire Chief, Highway Surveyor and Water Superintendent to deal with simulated emergencies that would face the town if hit by a hurricane. The code name for this test is "Beaufort '74". The public will not participate. In addition to the above town officials, the Rescue Squad, Dr. Seidl's medical team and public utility representatives will take part as will members of the RACES radio network. The exercise will be a seminar type centering on the control center of the Police Department at the Town Hall. Ninety-two Southeastern Massachusetts communities will participate, directed and coordinated by John L. Lovering from headquarters in Bridgewater. Mr. Lovering emphasized, "We are presently at the height of the 1974 hurricane season and community officials are now in the process of updating natural disaster plans and emergency procedures in the event a storm comes our way. This exercise will aid in that effort."

Professional Politician vs. Ordinary Citizen

THE INCUMBENT — BARBARA LACASSE

Our State House in Boston is full to the brim with professional politicians ... men and women who have absolutely no concept of what problems the people of Massachusetts are experiencing.

The trend this year in elections all over the Country is to elect regular people to do a regular job ... the choice is simple ... carry on as we have with a professional politician ... or elect someone who knows our problems ... and is willing to spend her time and energy in trying to solve them.

SEWER PERMIT DEADLINE

Mr. Paul Marchessault of the Massachusetts Environmental Protection Administration has advised the Selectmen that his office is now working on a Mattapoisett sewage permit that requires the town to begin final plans for a sewage system by July 1, 1975. One year will be allowed to complete the preparation of these plans and, if they include a tie-in with the Fairhaven treatment plant, the work will be required to be completed by 1978.

EARLY SELECTMEN'S MEETING

Because of the Civil Defense Test exercise on October 15, the Board of Selectmen will meet at 6:30 on that date.

Sippican Choral Society

SINGERS INVITED

The new director of the Sippican Choral Society, Peter West, asks anyone desiring to join the chorus to please come to next Monday's rehearsal, since that will be the cut-off date for new members until the first rehearsal in January.

West explained this is necessary because he needs to know how many will be singing the three concerts already on their schedule and how much music will be needed.

But, he urges all who enjoy singing to come on Monday night at 8 o'clock to the parish hall (at the rear of the Browne Pharmacy parking lot) of the Marion Congregational Church.

Over 70 people attended last week's rehearsal. A nominal fee is charged to cover the Society's expenses.

The group's first concert is November 24 at Tabor Academy's Wickenden Chapel. Following that, the chorus will sing at the Tri-County Music Association's concert December 15 at Old Rochester Regional High

Christmas Mini-Fair

Giant bargains at a Christmas Mini-Fair!

Due to many requests, a return to the traditional Christmas Fair, but in a mini form, sponsored by the Mattapoisett Women's Community Guild, will be held from 10 A.M. to 4 P.M., November 19th, in the Congregational Church Parish Hall.

"Mark your calendar so you will be on hand for choosing your Christmas gifts early," say co-chairmen Barbara Heuberger and Carol Connor.

Members are busy planning and working on a variety of table items. Last year the fair was held strictly for children.

If you would like to help, materials can be obtained from one of the table chairmen - or, if you have materials to donate but no time to work, these will be welcome by the chairmen.

Table chairmen are: Margaret Tripp, hand knits; Anna Bradley, candy; Florence Bennett, food; Ruth Walega, children; Cheryl Marcosa, gifts; Dorothy Harris, jewelry; Mary Erhard, plants; Rita Dunn, white elephants; and Olive Stickney, decorations.

Mary Helfand will be in charge of the coffee hour and Virginia Arral will be handling publicity.

MERIT PROGRAM COMMENDED STUDENTS

Four seniors at Old Rochester Regional High School have been named Merit Program Commended students by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation.

Principal David Hagen announced that the following students have received Letters of Commendation: Pamela Chace, James Childs, Sally Duggan, Laurie Hauptman.

These students are among the 38,000 Commended students named on the basis of their high performance on the 1973 Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test/National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test (PSAT/NMSQT). Commended students are in the upper 2 percent of those who are expected to graduate from high school in 1975. Although the Commended students ranked high on the PSAT/NMSQT, their scores were just below those of the 15,000 semifinalists who were announced in September by NMSC; Commended students do not continue in the Merit Scholarship competition.

Edward C. Smith, president of NMSC, said: "The high standing of Commended students in the Merit Program shows their great pro-

To increase their scholarship opportunities NMSC reports the Commended students' names to the regionally accredited colleges they named as their first and second choices when they took the PSAT/NMSQT in October 1973. The reports include home addresses, test scores, and anticipated college major and career intentions of the Commended students.

HEADLIGHTS

HELPFUL ADVICE FOR THE WOMAN DRIVER

To maximize your chances of surviving an auto accident, buckle down to buckling up your seat belts.

Advocates of seat belts usually stress that buckling up will-in the event of an impact--tend to keep you from slamming forward into the steering wheel or instrument panel or both. But that's only part of the story.

Equally important--especially in a potential accident situation--is that seat belts keep you nailed down, keep you in position to steer and drive the car; they not only restrain your forward motion, but they keep you from sliding on the driver's seat.

Say you blow the left front tire and your car is suddenly and violently thrown into a broadside slide. The dynamics of such a situation dictate that you'll be thrown to your right, possibly even against the passenger door. You can't steer the car from the passenger side. You can't control it when you're rolled up in a ball on the floor. True, cinching your seat belt down tight may wrinkle a skirt, ruin an artfully pressed pleat, but consider the alternative.

The most important tool you can carry in your car is a dime to make a telephone call to the nearest service station, the police or a friend.

When you need someone who can either come to your assistance or can help get assistance to you, it's a good idea to have taped two or three dimes to the inside of your glove compartment door so they'll be handy for such an emergency.

SIERRA CLUB FILMS

On Friday evening, October 11th, Children's Museum will show 2 Sierra Club films at the Dartmouth Middle School on Hawthorn Street. The films will start at 7:30 P.M. and a small donation is requested at the door.

The first film, "Follow the Wind to Cousin", is about the bird life on one of the smaller of the Seychelles group in the Indian Ocean. Cousin is unique in the world as an entire island bird sanctuary. The Sierra Club commissioned naturalist/photographer Tony Beamish to make a study of Cousin and its unusual bird population. The film was produced in cooperation with the International Council for Bird Preservation and contains unique scenes of fairy terns, noddies, Toqtoq, a grey turtle dove, the rare brush warbler and other unusual birds.

"Wilderness Alps of Stehekin" depicting the beautiful and rugged terrain of the Northern Cascades in Washington at the head of Lake Chelan will be shown as the second film. Two boys and their father explore the fantastic mountain range which has been characterized by a National Park Service Study Team as an area which outranks in its scenic, recreational, and wildlife values any existing national park and any other possi-

HALLOWEEN HINTS

Halloween is the perfect time to broaden the scope of your children's understanding of fire safety. Here, from the Hartford Insurance Group's Junior Fire Marshal program, are some Halloween precautions for you to observe and teach:

1. No public bonfire celebrations unless under the control of the Fire Department.
2. Use flashlights, not candles, to light jack-o-lanterns.
3. Never cover light bulbs with paper or other flammable material.
4. All paper and cloth used for decorations should be fire resistant.
5. Keep corn husk decorations away from any fire and spray them with fireproofing liquid.
6. Use only fire-proof paper or cloth for costumes.

To make cloth flame-resistant, dip the fabric in a solution consisting of 9 ounces of Borax and 4 ounces of boric acid mixed in a gallon of water. Hang fabric to dry after dipping. Fabric must be re-treated after laundering.

Because it used noisemakers to sound alarms, America's first fire department was called "The Rattle Watch."

He will "introduce" the characters and explain the methodology -- and experiences while doing these objets d'art. Lunch will be served at noon, followed by a very brief business meeting. Guests are invited as well as the members. Luncheon is a "dish donation".

HAMEL PRODS LEGISLATURE INTO DISCLOSURE

State Senatorial Candidate Paul G. Hamel announced today that he will file a bill making legislative records available to the general public. "In 1973," Hamel stated, "the legislature passed a bill redefining public records. The unfortunate part of this bill is that it applies only to the executive branch of government and not to the legislative branch. The many legislative committees should be required to disclose any and all information they may have gathered once they report out a bill. The Committee on Ways and Means, for example, makes many decisions based on information which is available only to Committee members. The general public should have access to the information on which decisions are based."

Hamel further added that the legislature should not try to impose standards on the executive branch that the legislature itself is not willing to live up to. "What is good for the corner office is good for the House and Senate," stated Hamel, "especially in areas dealing with openness in government."
